ANGEL MOTHER

"If there's a Mother's Day there should be a Child's Day"! Those were the thoughts of little me for probably most of my adolescence. Did any of you have a similar thought to that? Now, being a young adult I understand why Mother's Day is a thing and not Child's Day. Though I don't have children of my own yet, I can't imagine the stress and worry my siblings and I have put on our mother throughout the years. As I am sure we all have done to some extent. The Bible makes it clear to us that we are to honor our fathers and mothers (Don't worry fathers, your time will come in June). A quote that has become popular over time and which shows true honor towards a mother, were the wonderful words of Abraham Lincoln. "All that I am, or hope to be, I owe to my angel mother". I am so glad that over time my mindset changed from that of wishing for my own holiday, to realizing how much my mom and many others deserve this day. I think of my mom and all the times she kept her composure in times of crisis, for her words of wisdom and comfort and all the lessons she's taught me. When life is scary, confusing, and weird, she is my angel. May we all learn to honor and love our angel mothers as commanded. Abbie Cornelius
