PLUG INTO THE HIGHEST POWER

MUSIC COMING SOON

With worship evolving from online to limited participation and precautions we originally planned June without hymns. We did this not knowing how the transition would work and if singing with masks was even feasible. Having been on/being on vacation I am excited that we have been able to introduce hymns back into worship. This is one small step toward what ever our new normal is. When I return from vacation in July I would like to look at putting together small ensembles of instrumentalists. If you play any instrument and would like to participate in this please write to me with your name, instrument, level of ability and contact information. When I return, I will outline how we can do this in a safe manner that will help enhance our worship. Myself, and I am sure you, the congregation, miss music in worship. Please know that there is a lot of national research going on with both musical and medical organizations to determine how and what is safe in the long run. I hope to give you an update in early July on recommendations and our plan at American Lutheran. Blessings to you all, David Sherman

HAPPY FATHER'S DAY

Thank goodness for fathers! They can teach us sports, how to fix cars, how to build forts and model airplanes! But let's be real, the best thing is the dad jokes! Let me try a few on you! "Dad, can you put my shoes on?" "No, I don't think they'll fit me". Wait, I got another one! "Need an ark?" "I noah guy". I of course had to google those because I am not a dad, but I can totally see many dads using those! One of my most favorite memories with my dad was him and I building a little car for the Pinewood Derby Race at church. We built and painted it together and at the end we finished in second place. Even though we didn't win, the whole experience was so fun I didn't mind! I want to thank my heavenly Father for providing me and so many others with my father and the other father-figures in the world. I pray that you or the fathers in your life are blessed and feel the strength of our Lord as fathers all over guide others to God's heart. Have a safe and wonderful Father's Day!
Abbie Cornelius
